

ARTICLING STUDENT POSITIONS

The ELC is a non-profit society that operates a clinical public interest environmental law program in partnership with the University of Victoria Faculty of Law. Providing assistance to community groups, conservation organizations and First Nations across the province, the ELC produces legal research, education materials and citizen handbooks; advocates on a range of environmental law reform issues; and represents clients before legislative committees, tribunals, and the courts. As an Articled Student with the ELC, you will receive a competitive salary and have the opportunity to work with experienced lawyers both at the ELC and in private practice.

The Environmental Law Centre (ELC) is currently accepting applications for the following Articled Student positions:

Position #1 – Shared Articles (Oct 25, 2010 – Mar 18, 2011)

Shared articulated position funded by the Tula Foundation. Students complete part of the articling term at the ELC and part of it with another firm. Students hired for these positions are responsible for securing a “shared” articling position that meets Law Society articling requirements. For more information about ELC shared articles, see our e-flyer at www.elc.uvic.ca/articling/index.htm.

Position #2 – Shared Articles (Mar 21, 2011 – Aug 12, 2011)

As Position #1, shared articulated position funded by the Tula Foundation.

Position #3 – Full Year Articles (Sept 2010-Sept 2011)***

Full year position funded by the Law Foundation of BC’s Public Interest Articling Fellowship program. Students work with the ELC legal team as well as lawyers across the province belonging to the ELC Associates Program.

**NOTE: Position #3 is subject to continued funding.*
